Congressman Larson to Host a Summit for Small Business Owners in Hartford Next Week

Hartford, CT- On Wednesday, January 6th from 9:00AM-10:30AM at the Rajun Cajun Restaurant in Hartford, U.S. Congressman John B. Larson (CT-01) will host a Small Business Summit to provide resources to local business owners.

Joining Congressman Larson at the meeting will be representatives of the U.S Small Business Administration, and local business financing and lending organizations to speak about resources available for small business.

During these tough economic times, our community businesses are facing difficulties in securing the necessary resources to grow and expand. Congressman Larson recognizes the important role small businesses have in shaping the economic and social landscape of our communities. He is committed to helping small businesses obtain the resources and guidance to endure and recover in our current economy.

Congressman Larson encourages individuals that are currently facing challenges accessing credit to sustain, grow, or start a business to attend.

For more information, please contact Congressman Larson's Hartford Office at 860-278-8888.
